

Professional Engineering: - Lanham, Maryland

Requirements:

- Ideal candidate will be a Professional Engineer licensed in Maryland and Virginia with 5 plus years experience in land and commercial development projects.
- This person must be fundamentally sound, strong in design and value engineering, have strong analytical problem solving skills, experienced in dealing with regulatory agencies, strong management, organization and communication skills.
- This person must enjoy working with people, be proactive, be a motivator, able to deal and manage crises,
- Strong believer of a quality product, true understanding of schedule and budget, keeping clients informed and follow up to see a project to completion.